

Hidden In The Hills Studio Tour & Sale

Call for Student Artists (open to grades 6-12) Hidden in the Hills Youth Art at Studio 1

Savvy art collectors often like to find young, emerging artists and follow them as they develop their talent. There's no better place to do this than at the Youth Art Studio 1 during the 23rd Annual Hidden in the Hills Artist Studio Tour & Sale taking place during the last two weekends of November (Nov. 22,23,24 and again Nov. 29, 30 Dec. 1)

The popular art tour features over 170 artists in 47 studio locations throughout the scenic Desert Foothills communities of Cave Creek, Carefree and North Scottsdale. A great opportunity for Sonoran Arts League artists to help mentor students, develop their artistic talent, they teach them important business skills so they learn how to promote and sell their work. Students may participate in one day or all six days
